

Fraternal Order of Police

Ashtabula Deputies Lodge #106

Serving Ashtabula County with Honor and Integrity

August 26, 2026

Dear Ashtabula County Residents,

The Ashtabula County Deputies Lodge #106 is proud to announce its support and endorsement of Harold Specht for Judge of the Ashtabula County Court of Common Pleas.

The Court of Common Pleas plays a vital role in protecting the rights of citizens, preserving public safety, and maintaining confidence in our justice system. This position requires integrity, sound judgment, fairness, and a strong commitment to the rule of law.

After careful consideration, the members of Lodge #106 believe Harold Specht possesses the experience, professionalism, and judicial temperament necessary to serve the citizens of Ashtabula County effectively and honorably. We are confident that he will approach every matter before the court impartially, thoughtfully, and with respect for everyone involved in the judicial process.

For these reasons, the Ashtabula County Deputies Lodge #106 proudly supports Harold Specht for Ashtabula County Common Pleas Judge and encourages the citizens of Ashtabula County to support him in the upcoming election.

Respectfully,

Ashtabula County Deputies Lodge #106